ABOUT THE NATIONAL WOMEN'S HISTORY MUSEUM

The National Women's History Museum educates, inspires, empowers and shapes the future by integrating women's distinctive history into the culture and history of the United States. The Museum's online exhibits and programs empower people through women's history by providing a better understanding of society's cultural, economic and political evolution while inspiring them to reach their potential. Our vision is to build a world-class museum on the National Mall in Washington, DC, that will be the first museum in any nation's capital to show the full scope of the history of its women and will serve as a guiding light to people everywhere.
