

Women's History Month 2021 Resources

March 1-5

Monday

Discover the history behind women's history month.

Click Here

Tuesday

Explore one of the biographies featured in the monthly "Fab Five" roundup!

Click Here

Wednesday

Explore the online exhibit, First but Not the Last. Learn more about barrier-breaking women who ran for office and ensured women are present wherever decisions are being made.

Click Here

Thursday

Celebrate the ground-breaking "first" of a woman in national office through the visual arts!

Click Here

Friday

Learn more about women's history by virtually visiting the National Women's Hall Of Fame.

Click Here

National Women's History Museum

A close-up photograph of several hands, likely belonging to women, with blue and white nail art that says 'VOTE'. The hands are positioned over a red background with white text, possibly a sign or poster. The overall image is used as a header for the Women's History Month 2021 Resources page.

Women's History Month 2021 Resources

March 8–12

Monday

Celebrate International Women's Day with the National Women's History Museum! Make plans to attend this special film screening of And She Could Be Next (episode 1), including live Q&A with the filmmakers.

Click Here

National Women's History Museum

Tuesday

Explore one of the biographies featured in the monthly "Fab Five" roundup!

Click Here

Wednesday

Learn more about the social movements in which American women participated in the fight for equality.

Explore the online exhibit, Pathways to Equality.

Click Here

Thursday

Discover how a pilot, an orator, and a community worker can help us understand the qualities of a great leader. Join the National Women's History Museum in partnership with the National Portrait Gallery and Smithsonian Air and Space Museum for a virtual event, "In Justice: Historical Objects and Social Justice."

Click Here

Friday

#KnowHerName and #KnowHerStory! Learn more about the visionary leader Ida B. Wells, a key advocate for justice during the 19th century.

Click Here

Women's History Month 2021 Resources

March 15–19

Monday

Celebrate Women's History Month with the National Women's History Museum! Make plans to attend this special film screening of And She Could Be Next (episode 2), including live q&a with the filmmakers.

Click Here

Tuesday

Explore one of the biographies featured in the monthly "Fab Five" roundup!

Click Here

Wednesday

Learn more about Latinas' bicultural political engagement and experience in the United States.

Explore the online exhibit, Representation with a Hyphen: Latinas in the Fight for Women's Suffrage.

Click Here

Thursday

#KnowHerStory! Learn more about the women's suffrage movement in this Women's History Minute short film.

Click Here

Friday

Learn more about women's history by virtually visiting the Maryland Museum of Women's History.

Click Here

National Women's History Museum

Women's History Month 2021 Resources

March 22–26

Monday

What can sports teach us about women's leadership?

Read more on this topic from mountaineer Vanessa O'Brien in "Mountains have No Ceilings."

Click Here

Tuesday

Explore one of the biographies featured in the monthly "Fab Five" roundup!

Click Here

Wednesday

Take a light-hearted lunch break with illustrator Marissa Valdez as she reads her most recent illustrated work, Ambitious Girl, by Meena Harris, and discusses her journey as a visual artist.

Click Here

Thursday

Learn more about African American women's leadership at the vanguard of the civil rights movement. Explore the online exhibit, Standing Up for a Change.

Click Here

Friday

Learn more about women's history by virtually visiting the Women's Museum of California.

Click Here

National Women's History Museum

Women's History Month 2021 Resources

March 29–31

Monday

Discover the inspiring story of Maria Tallchief, America's first prima ballerina. Explore the online exhibit, Maria Tallchief.

Click Here

Tuesday

Explore one of the biographies featured in the monthly "Fab Five" roundup!

Click Here

Wednesday

Scroll through some of the presentations from the recent PBS Unladylike2020 education summit held in partnership with the National Women's History Museum. Why do women continue to be left out of the social studies standards? How can we ensure that all voices are included in our national history?

Click Here

National Women's History Museum